

DHL CUSTOMS SERVICES EXPERTISE THAT COVERS THE WHOLE OF EUROPE

Let us carry out your customs formalities for import, export and transit activities. Next to these services we also offer consultancy, secondment, fiscal representation and Control Tower solutions.

Despite various free trade agreements, customs management today is as important as ever. We at DHL Freight can offer you the entire range of customs-related services.

Our know-how for you

- Customs clearance and associated services need to be fully understood – and that's what we do.
- The increasing Eastern European markets have to be covered – as well as many other places. With over 200 offices through-out Europe, we ensure smooth customs clearance for your shipments, throughout the entire transport chain.

The reliable way

Our customs experts will see to it that your goods get to their final destination with maximum reliability. Together with our consultancy and secondment services, as well as fiscal representation and Control Tower solutions, you have a holistic customs partner of unmatched expertise close at hand.

Want to know more? Talk to the specialists for customs-related matters throughout Europe.

Deutsche Post DHL – The Mail & Logistics Group

WE SPEAK THE LOCAL LANGUAGE...

... so that you don't have to! Leave it to us to find the right words for handling all your customs formalities.

With our unique network of over 200 offices spanning the whole of the continent, DHL Freight is the partner you need for handling all your import, export and transit formalities when you want to get your shipment from A to B as quickly and smoothly as possible, as well as for secondment and consultancy services.

International expertise with local focus

Our presence in all European countries means that we speak the local language and are up-to-date with national customs regulations which, despite the EU, vary from country to country.

Our concentration on and expertise in customs matters can only be to your advantage. With DHL Freight, you can expect:

- Professional advice on all matters pertaining to customs, import VAT, excise duties and security
- Us to act as your representative and contact point towards the authorities
- Usage of customs simplifications via our existing authorizations, e.g. authorized consignee / authorized consignor
- On-site support from our declarants on a secondment basis
- Smooth and fast customs clearance
- State of the art IT solutions including tailor-made performance and quality reporting
- Transit documents to be handled professionally
- Bonded warehouses for easier import, export and transit operations
- Your days of handling day-to-day customs and VAT formalities to be a thing of past

Contact

For further information on DHL Freight service availability, visit your local DHL website. All services are subject to terms and conditions. freightsales.europe@dhl.com