STANDARD TRADING CONDITIONS

Adapted from the

TRADING TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN ASSOCIATION OF FREIGHT FORWARDERS

1. INTERPRETATION

In these trading terms and conditions

- 1.1. the headings to the clauses are for reference purposes only and shall not aid in the interpretation of the clauses to which they relate;
- 1.2. unless the context clearly indicates a contrary intention, words importing any one gender include the other two genders, the singular includes the plural and vice versa, and natural persons include created entities (corporate or unincorporate) and vice versa;
- 1.3. the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them hereunder and cognate expressions shall have a corresponding meaning namely –
 - 1.3.1. "the company" means the company referred to above, or if it exercises its right under clause 2, the member of the group in respect of which it exercises its rights;
 - 1.3.2. "customer" means any person at whose request or on whose behalf the company undertakes any business or provides any advice, information or service;
 - 1.3.3. "goods" means any goods handled, transported, warehoused or dealt with by or on behalf of or at the instance of the company or which come under the control of the company or its agents, servants or nominees on the instructions of the customer, and includes any container, transportable tank, flat pallet, package or any other form of covering, packaging, container or equipment used in connection with or in relation to such goods;
 - 1.3.4. "the group" means the company and any company which is a holding company or subsidiary of the company from time to time which may render services to the customer in terms of clause 2;
 - 1.3.5. "the owner" means the owner of the goods to which any business concluded under these trading terms and conditions relates and any other person who is or may have or acquire any interest, financial or otherwise, therein.

2. MEMBERS OF THE GROUP RENDERING SERVICES TO THE CUSTOMER

The company may at its election perform all or any business undertaken or provide advice, information or services, whether gratuitous or not, either itself or it may procure that any member of the group undertakes such business or provides such advice, information or services as principal upon and subject to the terms and conditions contained herein which shall apply mutatis mutandis to the customer and any such member of the group.

3. APPLICATION OF TRADING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Subject to clause 5, all and any business undertaken or advice, information or services provided by the company, whether gratuitous or not, is undertaken or provided on these trading terms and conditions.

4. OWNER'S RISK

All handling, packing, loading, unloading, warehousing and transporting of goods by or on behalf of or at the request of the company are effected at the sole risk of the customer and/or the owner, and the customer indemnifies the company accordingly.

5. APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

- 5.1 If the company is obliged, in the execution of any of its duties and/or responsibilities to comply with any common law or legislative enactment ("the law") of any nature whatsoever, then the company by complying therewith, shall not be deemed to waive nor abandon any of its rights in terms of these trading terms and conditions.
- 5.2 In addition thereto, in complying with the law, the company shall not be deemed to have assumed any onus, obligation, responsibility or liability in favour of the customer.
- 5.3 If any of the terms of these trading terms and conditions is repugnant to or in conflict with the law, then and in such event the conflicting term embodied herein shall be deemed to be amended and/or altered to conform therewith, and such amendment and/or alteration shall not in any way affect the remaining provisions of these trading terms and conditions.

6. FIATA COMBINED TRANSPORT BILL OF LADING

The company shall be entitled to issue in respect of the whole or part of any contract for the movement of goods a FIATA combined transport bill of lading ("FBL") provided that where a FBL is issued these trading terms and conditions shall continue to apply except insofar as they conflict with the terms and conditions applicable to the FBL. The issue of the FBL by the company shall entitle it to raise an additional charge determined by the company, to cover its additional obligations arising under the FBL.

7. EXCLUSION OF OBLIGATIONS OF COMMON OR PUBLIC CARRIER

The company deals with goods only on the basis that it is neither a common carrier nor a public carrier.

8. COMPANY'S DISCRETION IN THE ABSENCE OF INSTRUCTIONS

In the absence of specific instructions given timeously in writing by the customer to the company –

- 8.1 It shall be in the reasonable discretion of the company to decide at what time to perform or to procure the performance of any or all of the acts which may be necessary or requisite for the discharge of its obligations to the customer;
- 8.2 The company shall have an absolute discretion to determine the means, route and procedure to be followed by it in performing all or any of the acts or services it has agreed to perform;
- 8.3 In all cases where there is a choice of tariff rates or premiums offered by any carrier, warehouseman, underwriter, or other person depending upon the declared value of the relevant goods or the extent of the liability assumed by the carrier, warehouseman, underwriter or other person, it shall be in the discretion of the company as to what declaration, if any, shall be made, and what liability, if any, shall be imposed on the carrier, warehouseman, underwriter or other person.

8. COMPANY'S GENERAL DISCRETION

- 9.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, if at any time the company should consider it to be in the customer's interests or for the public good to depart from any of the customer's instructions, the company shall be entitled to do so and shall not incur any liability in consequence of doing so.
- 9.2 If events or circumstances come to the attention of the company, its agents, servants, or nominees which, in the opinion of the company, make it in whole or in part, impossible or impracticable for the company to comply with a customer's instructions the company shall take reasonable steps to inform such customer of such events or circumstances and to seek further instructions. If such further instructions are not timeously received by the company in writing, the company shall, at its sole discretion, be entitled to detain, return, store, sell, abandon, or destroy all or part of the goods concerned at the risk and expense of the customer.

10. INSURANCE

It is the customer's responsibility to ensure that goods are at all material times insured against loss or damage to their full value on an all risks basis. Should the customer fail to obtain such insurance then the customer shall bear all risk of loss or damage to such goods, and the customer indemnifies the company accordingly.

11. COMPANY'S OBLIGATIONS IN THE ABSENCE OF INSTRUCTIONS

Unless specific written instructions are timeously given to and accepted by the customer, the company shall not be obliged to –

- 11.1 make any declaration for the purpose of any statute, convention, or contract, as to the nature or value of any goods or as to any special interest in delivery. In particular, the company shall be under no obligation to make any declaration or to seek any special protection or cover from any carrier in respect of any goods which are, or fall within the definition ascribed thereto by that body of dangerous goods or other goods which require special conditions of handling or storage;
- 11.2 arrange for any particular goods to be carried, stored or handled separately from other goods.

12. CUSTOMER'S UNDERTAKINGS

- 12.1 For all purposes hereunder the customer shall be deemed to have in relation to the customer's business, the goods and the services to be rendered by the company in regard thereto, reasonable knowledge of all matters directly or indirectly relating thereto or arising therefrom including, without limitation, terms of sale and purchase and all matter relating thereto and the customer undertakes to supply all pertinent information to the company.
- 12.2 The customer warrants that –
 - 12.2.1 it is either the owner or the authorised agent of the owner of any goods in respect of which the customer instructs the company and that each such person is bound by these trading terms and conditions;
 - 12.2.2 in authorising the customer to enter into any contract with the company and/or in accepting any document issued by the company in connection with such contract, the owner, sender or consignee is bound by these trading terms and conditions for itself and its agents and for any parties on whose behalf it or its agents may act, and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, it accepts that the company shall have the right to enforce against them jointly and severally any liability of the customer under these trading terms and conditions or to recover from them any sums to be paid by the customer which upon proper demand have not been paid;
 - 12.2.3 all information and instructions supplied or to be supplied by it to the company is and shall be accurate, true and comprehensive, and in particular, without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, the customer shall be deemed to be bound by and warrants the accuracy of all descriptions, values and other particulars furnished to the company for Customs, consular and other purposes, and the customer warrants that it will not withhold any necessary or pertinent information, and indemnifies the company against all claims, losses penalties, damages, expenses and fines whatsoever, whensoever and howsoever arising as a result of a breach of the foregoing whether negligently or otherwise including, without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, any assessment or reassessment;

12.2.4 all goods will be safely, properly, adequately and appropriately prepared and packed, stowed, labelled and marked, having regard inter alia to the implementation by or on behalf of the company or at its instance of the contract involved, and the characteristics or dangers of the goods involved and are capable of withstanding the normal hazards inherent in the implementation of such contract and will not cause the death of, or injury to, or illness of, any person, nor cause any loss of, or damage to, any property; and the customer indemnifies the company against all claims, losses, penalties, damages, expenses and fines whatsoever, whensoever and howsoever arising as a result of a breach of the foregoing, whether negligently or otherwise;

12.2.5 where goods are carried in or on containers, trailers, flats, tilts, railway wagons, tanks, igloos or any other unit load devices specifically constructed for the carriage of goods by land, sea or air, (each such device hereinafter individually referred to as "the transport unit") then save where the company has been given and has accepted specific written instructions to load the transport unit –

12.2.5.1 that the transport unit has been properly and competently loaded; and

12.2.5.2 that the goods involved are suitable for carriage in or on the transport unit; and

12.2.5.3 that the transport unit is itself in a suitable condition to carry the goods loaded therein and complies with the requirements of all relevant transport authorities and carriers;

12.2.6 all goods entrusted by it to the company or in respect of which the customer instructs the company shall have been:

12.2.6.1 prepared in secured premises;
12.2.6.2 handled by staff who have been subjected to background checks and have received job specific cargo security training as prescribed by law; protected from unlawful interference during preparation, storage and transportation;

12.2.6.3 subjected to such security controls as are prescribed by law;

12.2.6.5 sealed with seals of acceptable quality and of such type as may be prescribed by law;

12.2.7 it is validated and accredited by the Civil Aviation Authority as a known consignor, unless it has advised the company otherwise in writing;

12.2.8 that it shall ensure compliance with all applicable export control and sanctions laws and regulations ("Export Laws") and warrant in particular that:

12.2.8.1 neither Customer, any holding company, agents, consignee or any other third party directly contracted by Customer for the delivery of the Goods are listed on any applicable sanctions lists as a denied or restricted party;

12.2.8.2 the delivery of the Goods to their final destination, any known end-user and end-use do not constitute a breach of any applicable Export Laws;

12.2.8.3 Customer will inform the Company should the Goods be subject to any applicable sanction and/or export/re-export restrictions under applicable Export Laws;

12.2.8.4 Customer has obtained all necessary permits, licenses or other government authorizations required for the delivery of the Goods to their final destination and end-use.

12.2.8.5 Customer shall provide Company with all information, including permits and licenses, required by applicable Export Laws to permit the Company to further the delivery of the Goods to the final destination country.

12.2.9 it will itself comply with all applicable legislation and regulations, including those pertaining to safety and security, and with such safety and security procedures as may be stipulated by the company from time to time;

12.2.9 save as disclosed by the customer to the company in writing, none of the goods have any special requirements as to storage, temperature, humidity or otherwise.

13. RECOVERY OF DEBTS DUE TO THE COMPANY

The company shall be entitled to recover any amounts due to it by the customer in respect of instructions relating to or in terms of any contract in respect of particular goods from the customer, or if the customer acts as agent for a disclosed or undisclosed principal from the customer or the principal, as the company in its absolute discretion deems fit.

14. COMPANY ENTITLED TO ACT AS AGENT OR PRINCIPAL IN CONTRACTING

14.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the company in procuring the carriage, storage, packing or handling of goods shall be entitled to act either as an agent for and on behalf of the customer or as a principal, as it in its absolute discretion deems fit.

14.2 The offer and acceptance of a fixed price for the accomplishment of any task shall not itself determine whether such task is to be arranged by the company acting as agent for and on behalf of the customer or as a principal.

14.3 The customer acknowledges that when the company, as agent for and on behalf of the customer, concludes any contract with a third party, such agreement is concluded between the customer and the third party.

14.4 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the company, when acting as agent for and on behalf of the customer, shall be entitled to enter into any contract it reasonably deems necessary or requisite for the fulfillment of the customer's instructions, including, without limitation, contracts for the –

14.4.1 carriage of goods by any route or means or person;

14.4.2 storage, packing, transport, shipping, loading, unloading and/or handling of goods by any person at any place whether on shore or afloat and for any length of time.

14.4.3 carriage or storage of goods in break-bulk form or in or on transport units as defined in clause 12.2.5 or with or without other goods of whatsoever nature.

15. SUBCONTRACTING

15.1 Any business entrusted by the customer to the company may, in the absolute discretion of the company, be fulfilled by the company itself, by its own servants performing part or all of the relevant services, or by the company employing, or entrusting the goods or services to third parties on such conditions as may be stipulated by, or negotiated with, such third parties for the purposes of such services, or such part thereof as they may be employed to carry out.

15.2 Where the company employs third parties to perform all or any of the functions which it has agreed to perform, the customer agrees that the company shall have no responsibility or liability to its customer for any act or omission of such third party, even though the company may be responsible for the payment of such third party's charges; but the company shall, if suitably indemnified against all costs, (including attorney and client costs) which may be incurred by or awarded against the company, take such action against the third party on the customer's behalf as the customer may direct.

15.3 The provisions of clauses 15.1 and 15.2 shall not apply to the clearance of the goods through customs in the Republic of South Africa.

16. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF AGENTS AND SUBCONTRACTORS

16.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein the customer agrees that all goods shall be dealt with by the company on the terms and conditions, whether or not inconsistent with these trading terms and conditions, stipulated by the carriers, warehousemen, government departments, and all other parties (whether acting as agents or subcontractors to the company or not) into whose possession or custody the goods may pass, or subject to whose authority they may at any time be.

16.2 In the event of the goods being subject to a house bill of lading or air waybill, issued by the company, then, in the event of a conflict existing between the terms and conditions of that house bill of lading or air waybill (as the case may be) and these trading terms and conditions, the terms and conditions of the house bill of lading or air waybill shall take precedence.

17. GOODS REQUIRING SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

Except under special arrangements previously made in writing the company will not accept or deal with bullion, coin, precious stones, jewellery, valuables, antiques, pictures, human remains, livestock or plants. Should the customer nevertheless deliver such goods to the company or cause the company to handle or deal with any such goods otherwise than under special arrangements previously made in writing the company shall incur no liability whatsoever in respect of such goods, and in particular, shall incur no liability in respect of its negligent acts or omissions in respect of such goods. A claim, if any, against the company in respect of the goods referred to in this clause 17 shall be governed by the provisions of clauses 40 and 41.

18. GOODS REQUIRING PRIOR CONSENT OF THE COMPANY

18.1 The customer shall obtain in advance the company's specific written consent to accept into its possession or control or into the possession or control of any of its servants, agents or employees any goods, including radioactive materials, which may be or become perishable or dangerous, inflammable or noxious, or which by their nature may injure, damage, taint or contaminate, or in any way whatsoever adversely affect any person, goods or property, including goods likely to harbour or attract vermin or other pests. The customer warrants that such goods, or the case, crate, box, drum canister, tank, flat, pallet, package or other holder or covering of such goods will comply with any applicable laws, regulations or requirement of any authority or carrier or of the company and that the nature and characteristics of such goods and all other data required by such laws, regulations or requirements will be prominently and clearly marked on the outside cover of such goods.

18.2 If any such goods are delivered to the company, whether or not in breach of the provisions of clause 18.1, such goods may for good reason as the company in its discretion deems fit including, without limitation, the risk to other goods, property, life or health be destroyed, disposed of abandoned or rendered harmless or otherwise dealt with at the risk and expense of the customer and without the company being liable for any compensation to the customer or any other party, and without prejudice to the company's rights to recover its charges and/or fees including the costs of such destruction, disposal, abandonment or rendering harmless or other dealing with the goods. The customer indemnifies the company against all loss, liability or damage caused to the company as a result of the tender of goods to the company and/or out of the foregoing.

EXCELLENCE. SIMPLY DELIVERED.

19. PERISHABLE GOODS

- 19.1 Without limiting or affecting any other terms of these trading terms and conditions, goods (whether perishable or otherwise) in the care, custody or control of the company may at the customer's expense be sold or disposed of by the company without notice to the customer, sender, owner or consignee, if –
- 19.1.1 such goods have begun to deteriorate or are likely to deteriorate;
- 19.1.2 such goods are insufficiently addressed or marked;
- 19.1.3 the customer cannot be identified;
- 19.1.4 the goods have not been collected or accepted by the customer or any other person after the expiration of 21 days from the company notifying the customer in writing to collect or accept such goods, provided that if the company has no address for the customer such notice period shall not be necessary, and payment or tender of the net proceeds, if any, of the sale thereof after deduction of those charges and expenses incurred by the company in respect thereof shall be equivalent to delivery of such goods.
- 19.2 Should any amount owing by the customer to the company in respect of any referred to in clause 19.1 become due and payable and remain unpaid, the company shall be entitled and the customer hereby authorises the company and without first obtaining an order of court, to sell all or any of the goods by public auction or on reasonable notice not exceeding 14 days by private treaty. The net proceeds of any such sale, after deducting therefrom all costs, charges and expenses incurred by the company, shall be applied in reduction or discharge as the case may be, of the customer's obligations to the company in respect of such goods without prejudice to the company's rights to recover from the customer any balance which may remain owing to the company after the exercise of such rights. Should the total amount collected by the company, after deducting therefrom all costs, charges and expenses incurred by the company in respect thereof, exceed the full amount of the customer's obligations to the company in respect of such goods, the company shall be obliged to refund such excess to the customer.

20. THE ACCEPTANCE OF DELIVERY

- If delivery of any goods is not accepted by the customer, consignee or party nominated by the customer at the appropriate time and place then: -
- 20.1 The company shall be entitled to store the goods or any part thereof at no risk to the company and at the expense of the customer.
- 20.2 The provisions of clause 19.2 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

21. WAREHOUSING

Pending forwarding and/or delivery by or on behalf of the company, goods may be warehoused or otherwise held at any place as determined by the company in its absolute discretion, at the customer's expense.

22. COLLECTION OF EXPENSES AND C O D

- 22.1 When goods are accepted or dealt with by the company upon instructions to collect freight, duties, charges or other expenses from the consignee or any other person, the customer shall remain responsible therefor if they are not paid by such consignee or any other person immediately when due.
- 22.2 If accepted by the company, instructions to collect payment on delivery shall be subject to the condition that the company will be entitled to assume that the recipient will effect payment and in the matter of such collection will not be liable for any negotiable instrument which is not met on due date for payment.

23. SUNDRY GOODS RECOGNISABLE AS THE CUSTOMER'S

The company shall have no obligation to take any action in respect of any goods which may be recognisable as belonging to the Customer unless and until it receives suitable instructions relating to those goods together with all necessary documents.

24. EXAMINATION OF GOODS

- 24.1 Where it is necessary for an examination to be held or other action to be taken by the company in respect of any discrepancy in the goods which are landed or discharged from any vessel, aircraft, vehicle, or transport unit, no responsibility shall attach to the company for any failure to hold such examination or to take any other action unless the company has been timeously advised by the landing or discharge agent that such goods have been landed and that such a discrepancy exists.
- 24.2 The company will not be responsible for examining or counting any goods received by it where such goods are bundled, palletised or packed in any manner such that their number cannot be quickly and easily counted. Should the company undertake to count goods so received, it shall incur no liability in respect of any error or inaccuracy in such counting, whether such error or inaccuracy is the result of negligence on the part of the company or otherwise. The company shall be entitled to levy a charge on the customer for the counting of goods in such circumstances.
- 24.3 The company shall have the right, but shall not be obliged, to examine or cause to be examined, any goods, and to inquire into the correctness or sufficiency of information or documentation submitted in respect of such goods and the customer shall co-operate promptly and fully with any such examination or inquiry.

25. DUTIES, TAXES, IMPOSTS, LEVIES AND DEPOSITS

- 25.1 The customer, whether or not the cause of payment was due to an act, instruction or omission of the sender, owner and/or consignee and their agents, if any, shall be liable for any duties, taxes, imposts, levies, deposits or out-lays of whatsoever nature levied by or payable to the authorities, intermediaries or other parties at any port or place for or in connection with the goods and whether at the time of entry and/or at any subsequent time and for any payments, fines, penalties, expenses, loss or damage or whatsoever incurred or sustained by the company in connection therewith or arising thereout.
- 25.2 The company shall bear no liability in consequence of the fact that there may be a change in the rate of duty, wharfage, freight, railage or cartage or any other tariff, before or after the performance by the company of any act involving a less favourable rate or tariff or by virtue of the fact that a saving might have been effected in some other way had any act been performed at a different time.

26. RECOVERY OF DUTIES INCORRECTLY PAID

Where as a result of any act or omission by or on behalf of or at the instance of the company and whether or not such act or omission was negligent, any duty, tax, levy, railage, wharfage, freight, cartage or any other impost or charge has been paid or levied in an incorrect amount, then any responsibility or liability to the customer which the company may otherwise have will cease and fall away if the customer does not –

- 26.1 within a reasonable time having regard to all the circumstances, and in particular to the time allowed for the recovery from the payee of the amount overpaid, advise the company that an incorrect amount has been paid or levied, and
- 26.2 do all such acts as are necessary to enable the company to effect recovery of the amount incorrectly paid.

The fact that the customer may not be aware that any such incorrect payment has been made shall not constitute a circumstance to be taken into account in calculating what is a reasonable time for the purpose of clause 26.1. Should any act or omission by the customer, whether or not such act or omission was due to ignorance on the part of the customer, and whether or not such ignorance was reasonable or justified in the circumstances, prejudice the company's right of recovery, the customer shall be deemed not to have complied with the provisions of clauses 26.1 and 26.2.

27. PAYMENT BY THE CUSTOMER

- 27.1 Unless otherwise specifically agreed by the company in writing the customer shall pay to the company in cash immediately upon presentation of account all sums due to the company without deduction or set-off and payments shall not be withheld or deferred on account of any claim or counterclaim which the customer may allege.
- 27.2 All and any moneys received by the company from the customer shall be appropriated by the company in its sole and absolute discretion in respect of any undisputed indebtedness owing by the customer to the company, notwithstanding that the customer might, when making payment, seek to appropriate the payment so made to any particular debt or portion of a debt.

28. DEBITING FEES AND DISBURSEMENTS

The company shall under no circumstances be precluded from raising a debit and obtaining payment in respect of any fee or disbursements due to it notwithstanding the fact that a previous debit or debits, whether excluding or partly excluding the items subsequently requiring to be charged or recovered, had been raised and whether or not any notice had been given that further debits were to follow.

29. RISK OF POSTED ITEMS

Notwithstanding any prior dealings between the company and the customer all documents, cash, cheques, bank drafts or other remittances, sent to the company through the post shall be deemed not to have been received by the company unless and until they are actually received by the company.

30. QUOTATIONS

- 30.1 The company shall be entitled at any time by notice to the customer to cancel or resile from any quotation or executory agreement in circumstances where it becomes impracticable or uneconomical for the company to carry out the contract at the quoted rate and the customer shall have no claim whatsoever against the company for any loss that the customer might incur as a result of the company cancelling or resiling from the quotation or executory agreement.
- 30.2 Without in any way limiting the provisions of clause 30.1 all quotations and agreements are subject to revision without notice having regard to changes in currency exchange rates and upward movements in amounts payable by or on behalf of or at the instance of the company to third parties including, without limitation, freight, surcharges, insurance premiums, equipment rental and labour which charges and upward movements take place after quotation. Any revision of rates as aforesaid will be commensurate with the change in the currency exchange rate or the increase in such amounts payable. Any such increase shall, failing agreement between the parties, be determined by the then auditors of the company or any other auditors nominated by the company, who in such determination shall act as experts and not as arbitrators and whose decision shall be final and binding on the parties.

31. NO CLAIMS AGAINST COMPANY DIRECTORS AND EMPLOYEES

The customer undertakes that no claim shall be made against any director, servant or employee of the company which imposes or attempts to impose upon him any liability in connection with the rendering of any services which are the subject of these trading terms and conditions and hereby waives all and any such claims.

32. CUSTOMER'S ORAL INSTRUCTIONS

The customer's instructions to the company shall be precise, clear and comprehensive and in particular, but without limitation, shall cover any valuation or determination issued by the Customs in respect of any goods to be dealt with by or on behalf of or at the request of the company. Instructions given by the customer shall be recognised by the company as valid only if timeously given specifically in relation to a particular matter in question. Oral instructions, standing or general instructions or instructions given late, even if received by the company without comment, shall not in any way be binding upon the company, but the company may act thereupon in the exercise of its absolute discretion.

33. VARIATION OF THESE TRADING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

No variation of these trading terms and conditions shall be binding on the company unless embodied in a written document signed by a duly authorised director of the company. Any purported variation or alteration of these trading terms and conditions otherwise than as set out above shall be of no force and effect, whether such purported variation or alteration is written or oral, or takes place before or after receipt of these standard trading terms and conditions by the customer.

34. NON WAIVER

No extension of time or waiver or relaxation of any of the trading terms and conditions shall operate as an estoppel against any party in respect of its rights under these trading terms and conditions, nor shall it operate so as to preclude such party thereafter from exercising its rights strictly in accordance with these trading terms and conditions.

35. GOVERNING LAW

These trading terms and conditions and all agreements entered into between the company and the customer pursuant thereto and on the terms thereof shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

36. SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION

The parties agree that any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with these trading terms and conditions shall be brought in the division of the Supreme Court of South Africa where the company's head office is situated at the commencement of the proceedings, and the customer irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of such court.

37. BENEFIT OF DISCOUNTS

The company is entitled to the benefits of any discounts obtained and to retain and be paid all brokerages, commissions, allowances and other remunerations of whatsoever nature and kind and shall not be obliged to disclose or account to the customer, or principal for any such amounts received or receivable by it.

38. LIEN

All goods and documents relating to goods including bills of lading and import permits, as well as all refunds, repayments, claims and other recoveries, shall be subject to a special and general lien and pledge either for moneys due in respect of such goods or for other moneys due to the company from the customer, sender, owner, consignee, importer or the holder of the bill of lading or their agents, if any. If any moneys due to the Company are not paid within 14 days after notice has been given to the person from whom the moneys are due that such goods or documents are being detained, they may be sold by auction or otherwise or in some other way disposed of for value at the sole discretion of the Company and at the expense of such person, and the nett proceeds applied in or towards satisfaction of such indebtedness.

39. INDEMNITY BY THE CUSTOMER

Without prejudice to any of the company's rights and securities under these trading terms and conditions, the customer indemnifies and holds harmless the company against all liabilities, damages, costs and expenses whatsoever incurred or suffered by the company arising directly or indirectly from or in connection with the customer's express or implied instructions or their implementation by or on behalf of or at the instance of the company in relation to any goods and in particular, but without limitation of the foregoing, in respect of any liability whatsoever which may be incurred-

- 39.1 to any haulier, carrier, warehouseman or other person whatsoever at any time involved with such goods arising out of any claim made directly or indirectly against any such person by the customer or by any consignor, consignee or owner of such goods or by any person having an interest in such goods or by any other person whatsoever; and/or
- 39.2 to any owner or consignee of such goods who is not the customer of the company where the company performs the service of a deconsolidation agent, or any other service; and/or
- 39.3 to any carrier of the goods if the company is the consignor or consignee of the goods; and/or
- 39.4 in respect of any goods referred to in clause 18; and/or
- 39.5 all liability, loss, damage, costs and expenses whatsoever (including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, all duties, taxes, imposts, levies, deposits and outlays of whatsoever nature levied by any authority in relation to the Goods) arising out of the Company acting in accordance with the Customer's instructions or arising from any breach by the Customer of any Warranty contained in these Conditions or from the negligence of the Customer; and/or
- 39.6 without derogation from Clause 39.5 above, any liability assumed or incurred by the Company when by reason of carrying out the Customer's instructions the Company has reasonably become liable or may become liable to any other party; and/or
- 39.7 all claims, costs and demands whatsoever and by whomsoever made or proffered in excess of the liability of the Company under the terms of these Conditions regardless whether such claims, costs and demands arise from or in connection with the negligence or breach of duty of the Company, its Servants, Sub-Contractors or agents.

40. LIMITATION OF COMPANY'S LIABILITY

- 40.1 Subject to the provisions of clause 40.2 and clause 41, the company shall not be liable for any claim of whatsoever nature (whether in contract or in delict) and whether for damages or otherwise, howsoever arising;
 - unless –
 - a) such claim arises from a negligent act or omission on the part of the company or its servants; and
 - b) in circumstances where the claim relates to loss of, damage to, or delay in relation to the carriage of, goods, such claim arises at a time when the goods in question are in the actual custody of the company and under its actual control.
- 40.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these trading terms and conditions, the company shall not be liable for any indirect and consequential loss arising from any act or omission or statement by the company, its agents, servants or nominees, whether negligent or otherwise.
- 40.3 The Company shall be relieved of liability for its contractual obligations and any loss or damage if and to the extent that such loss or damage is caused by:-
 - 40.3.1 strike, lock-out, stoppage or restraint of labour, restrictions implemented by the World Health Organisation for the unforeseen spread of diseases, the consequences of which the Company is unable to avoid by the exercise of reasonable diligence;
 - 40.3.2 Any cause or event which the Company is unable to avoid and the consequences whereof the Company is unable to prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence;
- 40.4 The Company shall be relieved of its contractual obligations to the extent that their performance is prevented by, or their non-performance results wholly or partly, directly or indirectly from the act, neglect, or default of the Customer, including any breach by the Customer of these Conditions;
- 40.5 Except under special arrangements made in writing by an officer of the Company so authorised, the Company accepts no responsibility for departure or arrival dates of Goods.

41. MONETARY LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF THE COMPANY

- 41.1 In those cases where the company is liable to the customer in terms of clause 40.1 or otherwise, in no such case whatsoever shall any liability of the company, howsoever arising, exceed whichever is the least of the following respective amounts –

41.1.1 the value of the goods evidenced by the relevant documentation or declared by the customer for customs purposes or for any purpose connected with their transportation;

41.1.2 the value of the goods declared for insurance purposes;

41.1.3 in respect of the loss of, or damage to, warehoused goods, R20.00 per kilogramme of the gross weight of the goods so lost, or damaged, and in all other instances, double the amount of the fees raised by the company for its services in connection with the goods, but excluding any amount payable to sub-contractors, agents and third parties.

- 41.2 If it is desired that the liability of the company in those cases where it is liable to the customer in terms of clause 40.1 should not be governed by the limits referred to in clause 41.1 written notice thereof must be received by the company before any goods or documents are entrusted to or delivered to or into the control of the company (or its agents or sub-contractors), together with a statement of the value of the goods. Upon receipt of such notice the company may in the exercise of its absolute discretion agree in writing to its liability being increased to a maximum amount equivalent to the amount stated in the notice, in which case it will be entitled to effect special insurance to cover its maximum liability and the party giving the notice shall be deemed, by so doing, to have agreed and undertaken to pay the company the amount of the premium payable by the company for such insurance. If the company does not so agree, the limits referred to in clause 41.1 shall apply.

- 41.3 If no fee is raised by the company for its services in connection with the goods then, for the purposes of clause 41.1.3, the company shall be deemed to have raised:

- 41.3.1 a fee equivalent to the fee that it would usually have raised for its services in connection with the goods; or, if it would not usually have raised a fee

- 41.3.2 a fee of R1 000.00.

42. GENERAL AVERAGE

The customer indemnifies and holds harmless the company in respect of any claims of a general average nature which may be made against the company and the customer shall provide such security as may be required by the company in this connection.

43. BREACH

If the company breaches any of these trading terms and conditions or any agreement between it and the customer and fails to remedy such breach within 30 days of the date of receipt of written notice requiring it to do so then the customer shall be entitled to compel performance by the company of the obligations it has defaulted in, but shall not be entitled to cancel these trading terms and conditions and any agreement between the customer and the company.

44. WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS BY THE COMPANY

The company makes no warranties and representations to the customer save as may be specifically provided herein or as notified in writing by the company to the customer from time to time. The customer acknowledges that the company is not in any way bound by any oral statement, representation, guarantee, promise, undertaking, inducement or otherwise which may have been made at any time by any salesman, employee, representative or any person acting or purporting to act for or on behalf of the company, whether negligently or otherwise unless such statements, representations, guarantees, promises, undertakings, warranties or inducements are supplied or made in writing by an employee duly authorised by written resolution of the board of directors of the company in response to a written enquiry specifying accurately and in complete detail what information is required.

45. DISPUTES

- 45.1 Should there be any dispute of any nature whatsoever between the parties in regard to any aspect, matter or thing relating to these trading terms and conditions and whether or not the company has executed its obligations in terms of any agreement it has with the customer, then and in such event the customer shall nevertheless be obliged to perform its obligations in terms of any such agreement as thought the company had performed properly and to the customer's satisfaction.
- 45.2 The customer's remedy, having performed its obligations as provided in clause 45.1, shall be limited to an action against the company for repayment of either the whole or portion of the amount which the customer alleges, constitutes an overpayment.
- 45.3 Without affecting the generality of clauses 45.1 and 45.2 the customer shall not be entitled to withhold payment of any amounts, by reason of any dispute with the company, whether in relation to the company's performance in terms of any agreement, or lack of performance or otherwise, after which payment the customer's rights of action against the company in terms of this clause can be enforced. Until such payment is made, any rights that the customer may have, shall be deemed not yet to have arisen and it is only the payment to the company which releases such rights and makes them available to the customer in respect of any claim that he may have against the company.
- 45.4 In any dispute between the company and the customer the company shall be deemed to have performed its obligations in a proper and workmanlike manner and strictly in accordance with any agreement between it and the customer, until such time as the customer proves the contrary.

46. TIME FOR PERFORMANCE BY THE CUSTOMER

Time is of the essence for the performance by the customer of all obligations owed to the company in terms of any agreement with it governed by these terms and conditions.

47. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of these terms and conditions is unenforceable, then the company shall be entitled to elect (which election may be made at any time) that such provision shall be severed from the remaining provisions of these terms and conditions which shall not be affected and shall remain of full force and effect.

48. CLAIMS

- 48.1 Any claim against the company must be notified to the company in writing within 30 (thirty) days of the event giving rise to the claim, failing which it shall be deemed to have been extinguished for all purposes.
- 48.2 Subject to compliance with clause 48.1, any claim against the company shall be extinguished for all purposes 365 days after the event giving rise to the claim, unless prior to the expiry of the period a summons or other process instituting legal action has been served upon the company.
- 48.3 Should any applicable terms and conditions as contemplated by clause 16 contain a shorter time period for the notification of claims than that referred to in clause 48.1 then, for the purposes of clause 48.1, that shorter time period shall apply.
- 48.4 The signature of the company's delivery note by the customer or other consignee or recipient of the goods, in acknowledgment of it having received the goods referred to therein in good condition, shall be conclusive proof of the goods referred to therein having been properly delivered by the company, in good order and condition.
- 48.5 Any claim against the company for loss or damage to the goods shall, in addition, be extinguished for all purposes unless the customer or other consignee or recipient of the goods notes the nature of such loss or damage on the delivery note at the time of taking delivery.

The provisions of 48.5 shall apply even though the customer or other consignee or recipient may have endorsed the delivery note with the words: "not checked" or some similar such words

49. COMPLIANCE AND DATA PROTECTION

- 49.1 Each party shall act in accordance with its own Code of Conduct, failing which the Customer shall evidence it is compliant with the principles contained in Deutsche Post DHL's Code of Conduct which can be found on:
www.dp-dhl.com/en/about_us/code_of_conduct.html;
- 49.2 Data Protection Legislation means the data protection and privacy laws of South Africa that apply to the processing of personal data in relation to orders, proposals or proof of concept to the services to be provided as per these terms and conditions between Customer and Company, including without limitation the Electronic Communications and Transactions Act No. 25 of 2002 (ECT), the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000, the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPIA") and any other law which governs the protection of personal information.
- 49.3 In respect of any Personal Data processed by either Party for and on behalf of the other Party pursuant to these terms conditions each Party undertakes that it shall and shall cause its vendors, agents, representative, Subcontractors and any other party to whom the Party may provide the Personal Data to comply with the following:
- 49.3.1 comply at all times with the Data Protection Legislation;
- 49.3.2 only process (including, without limitation, storage, disclosure, handling and transferring) the Personal Data:
- a) on behalf of the other Party to the extent necessary to perform its obligations towards the other Party and then only in accordance with these terms and conditions; and
 - b) on instructions received from the other Party from time to time; and
 - c) for only so long as is necessary to perform its obligations under this these terms and conditions;
- 49.3.3 put in place appropriate technical and organisational measures that prevent or are designed to prevent the accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access to Personal Data which comply with Good Industry Practice from time to time;
- 49.3.4 promptly and in no event later than twenty-four hours (24h) from the time the Party is aware of the incident, give written notice to the other Party of any actual or suspected incident of unauthorised or accidental disclosure of or access to the Personal Data and provide the other Party with all reasonable assistance in respect of its investigation and remedy of such disclosure, access or breach and shall keep all details of such disclosure, access or breach strictly confidential;
- 49.3.5 not make any copies of the Personal Data (whether in electronic or paper form) unless strictly necessary for the performance of the services under these terms and conditions;
- 49.3.6 not do, or omit to do, anything, which would cause the other Party or any Affiliate of the other Party to be in breach of its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation;
- 49.3.7 not modify, amend or alter the contents of the Personal Data or disclose or permit the disclosure of any of the Personal Data to any third party (including any agent or sub-contractor) unless expressly required to do so as part of these terms and conditions or specifically authorised in writing to do so by the other Party;
- 49.3.8 deal with any request received from a Data Subject to have access to his Personal Data in accordance with all relevant Data Protection Legislation (including within the relevant timescales set out in the POPIA); and
- 49.3.9 agree that for the purposes of providing and receiving the services as agreed in these terms and conditions the Personal Data may be transferred outside the area of South Africa without the prior written consent of the other Party. The sharing party confirms that:
- a) the third party who is the recipient of the information is subject to a law, binding corporate rules or binding agreement which provide an adequate level of protection that effectively upholds principles for reasonable processing of the information that are substantially similar to the conditions for the lawful processing of personal information relating to a data subject who is a natural person and, where applicable, a juristic person;
 - b) and includes provisions, that are substantially similar to the provisions of POPIA, relating to the further transfer of personal information from the recipient to third parties who are in a foreign country.
