DHL Express Easy: Shipment Contents Confirmation

DHL Service Point is a representative for DHL regarding shipment acceptance. DHL will do the final shipment examination. If your shipment should contain items not declared or inappropriate for transportation, including dangerous goods, the following actions would be taken:

- DHL will contact you and return all or part of your shipment at Service Point shown below.
- If you cannot be reached or if shipment item(s) cannot be returned to you at Service Point, DHL would do the return via a delivery service at your cost.
- If shipment cannot be returned to you for any reason, DHL will reserve the right to dispose it according to Terms and Conditions.
- If all of shipment items are returned to you before uploading, the charge will be paid back at Service Point shown below.
- If the actual shipper and the visitor to Service Point are different, DHL will assume the visitor as the representative for the shipper.

Please verify your shipment does not include the following items by checking the boxes. DHL will open the package for examination. Restricted items vary among destination countries. Your shipment may be subject to import duties and tax.
